```
A: plantation they have a haunted (.) they 30
31
      C: oh >is it out at the< plantati[on] 32
     A:
                                             [uh] hun.
33
         (0.6)
      A: tha the -that's a haunted plantation=
34
      C: =\underline{oh} tut >cause any \overline{way} < there is something 35
36
         on eight oh fi:ve
37
         (.)
      A: "Ala Moana]"?
38
39
      C:
                [Ala] Mbana they've haunted a house
40
         (1.0)
     C: bought tickets you know how they have those L[iving Social]'s
A: [I love those] I love yeah >yeah [yeah] <
41
42
43
44
                                                  [yea:]h yeah
         so bought it from Living Socials but I wish 45
46
         I'd bought Dole one 'cause it apparently it's 47 supposed to be really fun
48
      (.)
A: °yeah°=
49
50
      C: =but >for some reason I thought it was at 51
         the< (.) Dole Cannery hhm u: ha. guess no:t.
52
      A: oh I - maybe I'm wr [ong]
53
                               [ha]?
54
      A: >maybe I have to check into that < 55
      C: °yea: h°
56
      (0.3)
C: "to find out"
57
      A: >but I didn'-
```

repeats the same question in line 25 to show her disbelief.

After A gives the information about where the haunted house is (at the plantation), C shows new understanding with a change-of-state toke